THE COURT: Good afternoon. Would everyone other than the lawyers please be seated.

THE CLERK: This case is United States of America versus Enrica Cotellessa-Pitz.

MS. BARONI: Good afternoon, your Honor. Lisa Baroni for the government. With me is Julian Moore and Matthew Schwartz from the U.S. Attorney's office and Special Agents Jared Thompson and Paul Takla from the FBI.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Ms. Baroni, Mr. Moore, Mr. Schwartz, Agents Thompson and Takla.

MR. MOORE: Good afternoon, your Honor.

MR. TREANOR: Tim Treanor and David Rody for Enrica Cotellessa-Pitz. Good afternoon, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Treanor, Mr. Rody, and good afternoon, Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz.

This is Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz's first appearance, is that correct?

MR. TREANOR: Yes, your Honor.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

MR. TREANOR: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: So let's address the advice of rights first.

And good afternoon everyone. Thank you all for coming to court.

Would you please stand, Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz.

attorney to represent you.

PLEA Please state your full name. 1 THE DEFENDANT: Enrica Cotellessa-Pitz. 2 3 THE COURT: And how old are you, ma'am? 4 THE DEFENDANT: 53. 5 THE COURT: I will now explain certain rights that you have under the Constitution of the United States. 6 7 You have the right to remain silent. You need not make any statement. Even if you have already made statement to 8 9 the authorities, you need not make any additional statements. 10 Any statements that you do make can be used against you. 11 Do you understand these rights? 12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 13 THE COURT: You have the right to be released either 14 conditionally or unconditionally pending trial unless I find 15 that there are no conditions that would reasonably assure your presence at future court hearings and the safety of the 16 17 community. If the government were to ask me to detain you 18 pending trial, you are entitled to a prompt hearing on whether such conditions exist. 19 20 Do you understand this right? 21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 22 THE COURT: You have the right to be represented by an 23 attorney today and at all future proceedings in this case, and 24 if you are unable to afford an attorney, I will appoint an 1cjdpitp PLEA 1 Do you understand these rights? 2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 3 THE COURT: Do you wish to have and are you able to 4 obtain and afford counsel on your own? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Have you retained Messrs. Treanor and Rody 6 7 to represent you? 8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 9 THE COURT: Are you a citizen of the United States? 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 11 THE COURT: The document that contains the charges 12 against you is called an information. It has been issued by 13 the United States Attorney. You have a constitutional right to 14 be charged by an indictment rather than by an information. 15 indictment would be a charge issued from a grand jury. 16 Do you understand that? 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 18 THE COURT: Mr. Treanor, do you have the Waiver of 19 Indictment form there, and would you show it to 20 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz? 21 MR. TREANOR: Yes, your Honor. 22 THE COURT: Thank you. 23 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, have you signed this waiver of 24 indictment? 25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

1cjdpitp PLEA THE COURT: 1 Did you read it before you signed it? THE DEFENDANT: 2 Yes. 3 THE COURT: Did you understand it before you signed 4 it? 5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 6 THE COURT: And did you discuss it with your attorneys 7 before you signed it? 8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 9 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you did not 10 waive indictment, if the government wanted to prosecute you on 11 the charges that are in the Information, it would have to 12 present those charges to a grand jury, which might or might not 13 indict you on them? 14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 15 THE COURT: Do you understand that you are under no obligation to waive indictment? 16 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 18 THE COURT: Do you understand that by waiving 19 indictment you are giving up your right to have these charges 20 presented to a grand jury? 21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 22 THE COURT: Do you understand what a grand jury is? 23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 24 THE COURT: Did anyone give you anything or make any 25 threat or promises to get you to waive indictment?

1cjdpitp PLEA 1 THE DEFENDANT: No. 2 THE COURT: Have you seen a copy of the Fifth 3 Superseding Information that has number S5 10 Criminal 228 at 4 the top? 5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 6 THE COURT: Have you read it? 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. THE COURT: Have you discussed it with your attorneys? 8 9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 10 THE COURT: Do you understand the charges against you that are detailed in the Information? 11 12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 13 THE COURT: If you want me to, I can read the 14 Information out loud for you here in court. 15 Do you want me to read it to you? 16 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor. 17 THE COURT: Are you taking any medication or suffering from any condition that affects your ability to think clearly? 18 THE DEFENDANT: 19 No. 20 THE COURT: Is your mind clear today? 21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 22 THE COURT: Are you feeling well physically today? 23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 24 THE COURT: Do you feel comfortable making important 25 decisions for yourself today?

PLEA 1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. THE COURT: In the past 24 hours, have you taken any 2 3 drugs, medicine or pills or drunk any alcohol? 4 THE DEFENDANT: Just my prescription medications. 5 THE COURT: And did you take those medications on 6 schedule? 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 8 THE COURT: Does any of those medications affect your 9 ability to think clearly? 10 THE DEFENDANT: No. THE COURT: I find that Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz's Waiver 11 12 of Indictment is knowing and voluntary, and I accept it and I 13 so order it. 14 How do you intend to plead to the charges against you that are in that Information, not quilty or quilty? 15 16 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty. 17 THE COURT: Now, Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, you can have a 18 seat for a moment. I have a couple of questions for counsel. Mr. Treanor, this plea is pursuant to the agreement 19 20 that has been marked as Government Exhibit 1, is that correct? 21 MR. TREANOR: That is correct, your Honor. 22 THE COURT: And it is a letter addressed to you and 23 Mr. Rody dated today -- the printed date, I'm sorry, not today, 24 December 15th, last Thursday, at the top, is that correct? 25 MR. TREANOR: That is correct.

PLEA

THE COURT: And the advice of rights form has also been executed and marked as Court Exhibit 1, is that correct?

MR. TREANOR: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Baroni or Mr. Moore, would you make a statement regarding victim notification in connection with this proceeding?

MS. BARONI: Yes, your Honor.

Last Thursday, on December 15th, we sent a letter to your Honor outlining the proposed charges against

Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, and advising your Honor that she would plead guilty pursuant to a cooperation agreement with the government. On that date we posted that letter on the government's website on a page dedicated to Madoff-related cases for victim notification.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, before I accept your guilty plea, there are a number of questions that I must ask you while you are under oath to assure that it is a valid plea. At times I may cover a point more than once, and I may cover matters that were also addressed in the advice of rights form that you have seen, but if I do that will be because it is very important that you understand what is happening here today.

If you don't understand something that I ask you, please say so and I will reword the question or you may speak with your attorneys.

PLEA 1 Do you understand that? 2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 3 THE COURT: Please stand now to take the oath. 4 Ms. Ng, would you administer the oath, please. 5 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand. 6 (The defendant was sworn) 7 THE COURT: Would you please state your full name for the record. 8 9 THE DEFENDANT: Enrica Cotellessa-Pitz. 10 THE COURT: Do you understand that you have solemnly 11 promised to tell the truth, and that if you answer any of my 12 questions falsely, your false or untrue answers may later be 13 used against you in another prosecution for perjury or making a 14 false statement? 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 16 THE COURT: You can be seated for the next portion of 17 the proceeding. 18 Was the information that you gave me about your age and your mental condition a little while ago completely true? 19 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 21 THE COURT: How far did you go in school? 2.2 THE DEFENDANT: An undergraduate degree from college. 23 THE COURT: In what field. 24 THE DEFENDANT: Economics. 25 THE COURT: And what types of work have you done since finishing your final education? 1 2 THE DEFENDANT: I worked in the financial industry. 3 THE COURT: Are you able to speak, read and understand 4 the English language well? 5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 6 THE COURT: Counsel, does any of you have any doubt as 7 to Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz's competence to enter a guilty plea at this time? 8 9 MR. TREANOR: No, your Honor. 10 MS. BARONI: No, your Honor. 11 THE COURT: Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, your attorneys have 12 informed me that you -- and you actually have informed me 13 yourself that you wish to enter a quilty plea to the 14 Information. Do you wish to enter a plea of guilty? 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. THE COURT: Have you fully discussed your case with 16 17 your attorneys, including the charges to which you intend to 18 plead guilty and any defenses that you may have to those 19 charges? 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. THE COURT: Have you and your attorneys also discussed 21 22 the consequences of entering a guilty plea? 23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 24 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with your attorneys and 25 their representation of you?

PLEA

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: On the basis of Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz's responses to my questions and my observations of her demeanor, I find that she is fully competent to enter an informed plea at this time.

Before I accept your plea, ma'am, I am going to ask you some more questions. Thee questions are intended to satisfy the Court that you wish to plead guilty because you are in fact guilty and that you fully understand your rights and the consequences of your plea.

Now I will describe certain right that you have under the Constitution and laws of the United States. You will be giving up these rights if you enter a guilty plea. Please listen carefully. If you do not understand something that I am saying or describing, stop me and I or your attorney will explain it more fully.

Under the Constitution and laws of the United States, you have the right to a speedy and public trial by a jury on the charges against you that are in the Information. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that you have the right to plead not guilty and to continue to plead not guilty?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: If there were a trial, you would be presumed innocent and the government would be required to prove you guilty by competent evidence and beyond a reasonable doubt. You would not have to prove that you were innocent at a trial. Do you understand that?

PLEA

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: If there were a trial, a jury composed of twelve people selected from this district would have to agree unanimously in order to find you guilty. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: If there were a trial, and at all stages leading up to it, you would have the right to be represented by an attorney, and if you could not afford one, an attorney would be provided to you free of cost. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: If there were a trial, you would have the right to see and hear all of the witnesses against you and your attorney could cross-examine them. You would also have the right to have your attorney object to the government's evidence and offer evidence on your behalf, if you so desired. In addition, you would have the right to have witnesses required to come to court to testify in your defense. And you would have the right to testify yourself but you would not be required to testify.

Do you understand all of that?

PLEA

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 1 THE COURT: Do you understand that if there were a 2 3 trial and you decided not to testify, no adverse inference 4 could be drawn against you based on your decision not to 5 testify? 6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 7 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you were convicted at a trial, you would have the right to appeal that 8 9 verdict? 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 11 THE COURT: Do you understand each and every one of 12 the rights that I've asked you about? 13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do. 14 THE COURT: Do you have any questions about any of 15 these rights? 16 THE DEFENDANT: No. 17 THE COURT: Do you understand that by entering a 18 guilty plea today, you will be giving up each and every one of 19 these rights? 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 21 THE COURT: Do you also understand that you will be 22 giving up any possible claim that your constitutional rights 23 may have been violated? 24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 25 THE COURT: And do you understand that if you plead guilty you will have no trial?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that by pleading guilty you will also have to give up your right not to incriminate yourself, because I will ask you questions about what you did in order to satisfy myself that you are guilty as charged and you will have to admit and acknowledge your guilt?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that you can change your mind right now and refuse to enter a plea of guilty? You do not have to enter this plea if you do not want to for any reason. Do you understand this fully?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you still wish to plead guilty?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

THE COURT: Do you understand that Count One of the Superseding Information charges you participating in a conspiracy to, one, obstruct or impede the lawful government functions of the Internal Revenue Service in the ascertainment, assessment, computation and collection of income taxes; two, falsified books and records of a broker-dealer; three, falsified books and records of an investment advisor; and, four, make false filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, all in violation of Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 371?

PLEA

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that Count Two of the Superseding Information charges you with falsifying books and records of a broker-dealer, in violation of Title 15 of the United States Code, Section 78qa and 78ff; Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Section 240.17a-3, and Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 2?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that Count Three of the Superseding Information charges you with falsifying books and records of an investment advisor, in violation of Title 15 of the United States Code, Sections 80b-4 and 80b-17; Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Section 275.204-2, and Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 2?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that Count Four of the Superseding Information charges you making false filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in violation of Title 15 of the United States Code, Sections 78q and 78ff; Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Sections 240.17a-5, 240.17a-13, and 210.2-01; as well as Title 18 of the United States Code Section 2?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the government would have to prove each and every part, or element, of each of these charges beyond a reasonable doubt at a trial if you did not plead guilty?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Ms. Baroni or Mr. Moore, would you please state for the record the elements that the government would have to prove if we were to go to trial on these charges?

MS. BARONI: Yes, your Honor.

With respect to Count One, the conspiracy count, the government would have to prove the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt: First, that the conspiracy charged in the Information existed, in other words, that there was in fact an agreement or understanding to either violate the laws of the United States or to defraud the United States; second, that the defendant knowingly, willingly and voluntarily became a member of the conspiracy; third, that any one of the conspirators, not necessarily the defendant, knowingly committed at least one overt act in the Southern District of New York in furtherance of the conspiracy and during the life of the conspiracy.

With respect to Count Two, falsifying books and records of a broker-dealer, in order to prove this crime the government would have to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the following elements: First, that at the time of the alleged offense Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities was a registered broker-dealer; second, that BLMIS failed to make and keep certain accurate records as required under the SEC's rules and regulations; third, that the defendant aided and abetted BLMIS's failure to make and keep accurate records; and, fourth, that the defendant acted knowingly and willfully.

With respect to Count Three, falsifying books and records of an investment advisor, the government would have to prove, first, that at the time of the alleged offense BLMIS was an investment advisor; second, that BLMIS failed to make and keep certain accurate records as required under the SEC's rules and regulations; third, that the defendant aided and abetted BLMIS's failure to make and keep accurate records; fourth, that the defendant acted knowingly and willfully; and, fifth, that the offense involved the use of mails and the means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce.

And, finally, with respect to Count Four, making false filings with the SEC, the government would have to prove, first, that the defendant was required to file an application, report or document with the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder; second —

THE COURT: The defendant personally or BLMIS?

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{MS.}}$ BARONI: The defendant or the BLMIS, actually, your Honor.

That the application or report or document filed with the SEC contained false or misleading statements; third, that the false or misleading statements were material; and, fourth, that the defendant acted knowingly and willfully.

PLEA

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, do you understand the matters that the government would have to prove if you did not plead guilty?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the maximum possible penalty for the crime with which you are charged in Count One is five years of imprisonment, plus a fine of the greatest of $250,000, twice the gain resulting from the offense or twice the loss to other people resulting from the offense, plus a $100 special assessment, plus full restitution to all persons injured as a result of your criminal conduct, plus three years of supervised release after your term of imprisonment?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the maximum possible penalty for the crime with which you are charged in Count Two is 20 years of imprisonment, plus a fine of the greatest of $5 million, twice the gain resulting from the offense or twice the loss to other people resulting from the offense, plus a $100 special assessment, plus full restitution to all persons injured as a result of your criminal conduct, plus three years of supervised release after your term of imprisonment?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

PLEA

THE COURT: Do you understand that the maximum possible penalty for the crime with which you are charged in Count Three is five years of imprisonment, plus a fine of the greatest of $250,000, twice the gain resulting from the offense or twice the loss to other people resulting from the offense, plus a $100 special assessment, plus full restitution to all persons injured as a result of your criminal conduct, plus three years of supervised release after your term of imprisonment?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: And do you understand that the maximum possible penalty for the crime with which you are charged in Count Four is 20 years of imprisonment, plus a fine of the greatest of $5 million, twice the gain resulting from the offense or twice the loss to other people resulting from the offense, plus a $100 special assessment, plus full restitution to all persons injured as a result of your criminal conduct, plus three years of supervised release after your term of imprisonment?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the maximum possible combined penalty for the four crimes with which you are charged is 50 years of imprisonment, plus a fine of the greatest of -- plus a fine of $10,500,000 or, if greater, the sums of the relevant gains, losses and statutory amounts relating to your offenses, plus full restitution to all persons injured by your criminal conduct, plus $400 total mandatory special assessment, plus supervised release for three years after your term of imprisonment?

PLEA

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: I will now give you some information and verify your understanding of the supervised release aspect of the potential penalty.

Supervised release means that you will be subject to monitoring when you are released from prison. Terms and conditions will be imposed. If you violate any of the set terms and conditions you can be reimprisoned without a jury trial.

If you are on supervised release and you do not comply with any of the set terms or conditions, you can be returned to prison for the remainder of the term of supervised release, you will be given no credit for the time that you served in prison as a result of your sentence, and no credit for any time spent on post-release supervision.

So, for example, if you received a prison term and then a three-year term of supervised release and after you left prison you lived up to the terms of supervised release for two years but then you violated some term of the supervised release, you could be returned to prison for three full years.

Do you understand that?

PLEA

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. THE COURT: Do you also understand that if I accept 2 3 your quilty plea and adjudge you quilty, that adjudication may 4 deprive you of valuable civil rights such as the right to vote, 5 the right to hold public office, the right to serve on a jury, 6 and the right to possess any kind of firearm? 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 8 THE COURT: Do you understand that there are 9 Sentencing Guidelines that the Court must consider in 10 determining your sentence? 11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 12 THE COURT: Has your attorney discussed the Sentencing 13 Guidelines with you? 14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 15 THE COURT: Do you understand that in determining your sentence, the Court must calculate the applicable Sentencing 16 17 Guidelines' range and consider that range, possible departures under the Sentencing Guidelines, and other sentencing factors 18 under Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 3553(a)? 19 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 21 THE COURT: Do you understand that if your attorney or 22 anyone else has attempted to estimate or predict what your 23 sentence will be, their estimate or prediction could be wrong? 24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you also fully understand that even if your sentence is different from what your attorney or anyone else told you it might be, or if it is different from what you expect, you will still be bound to your guilty plea and you will not be allowed to withdraw your guilty plea?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the sentence to be imposed will be determined solely by the Court, and that I can only determine the sentence to be imposed after the Probation Department prepares a presentence report?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the Court has discretion, while taking into account the specific provisions and policy statements in the guidelines, to sentence you to any number of years of imprisonment between zero and the combined statutory maximums of 50 years?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Are you now serving any state or federal sentence, or are you being prosecuted for any other crime?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the Superseding Information also includes a forfeiture allegation in which the government asserts that you are required to forfeit to the United States all property, real and personal, that constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to the commission of the offenses charged in Counts One and Two of the Information

1cjdpitp PLEA including, but not limited to, a sum of money equal to 1 $97.3 billion, representing the amount of proceeds obtained as 2 a result of those offenses? 3 4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 5 THE COURT: Mr. Treanor, would you please show 6 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz Government Exhibit 1, the agreement. 7 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, have you signed this agreement? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 8 9 THE COURT: Did you read it before you signed it? 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 11 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with your attorneys 12 before you signed it? THE DEFENDANT: 13 Yes. 14 THE COURT: Did you fully understand the agreement before you signed it? 15 16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 17 THE COURT: Does the agreement reflect accurately your complete and total understanding of the entire agreement 18 between the government, your attorney and you? 19 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 21 THE COURT: Is everything that you understand about 22 your plea, cooperation and sentence covered in this agreement? 23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 24 THE COURT: Has anything been left out?

No.

THE DEFENDANT:

PLEA

THE COURT: Has anyone made any promises to you other than what's set forth in that agreement, or given you anything or threatened you or forced you to plead guilty or to enter into the cooperation agreement?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Do you understand that even if the government does not oppose or take a position on what your attorney will ask as a sentence, I am free to impose whatever sentence I believe is appropriate under the circumstances and the applicable law and you will have no right to withdraw your plea?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the agreement provides that you must cooperate fully with the Office of the United States Attorney, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the United States Department of Labor, the Internal Revenue Service, and any other law enforcement agency designated by the United States Attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the agreement does not bind any federal, state or local prosecuting authority other than the United States Attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the agreement provides that if the United States Attorney determines that you have provided substantial assistance in an investigation or prosecution, and if you have fully complied with the understandings specified in the agreement, the United States Attorney will file a motion pursuant to Section 5K1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines requesting that the court sentence you in light of the factors set forth in that section?

PLEA

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the factors that the Court may consider under Section 5K1.1 include the significance and usefulness of your assistance, the truthfulness, completeness and reliability of any information or testimony you provide, the nature and extent of your assistance, any injuries suffered or any danger or risk of injury to you or your family as a result of your assistance, and the timeliness of your assistance?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that even if the United States Attorney files such a motion, the sentence to be imposed on you remains within the sole discretion of the Court?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that you will not be entitled to withdraw your plea even if the Court denies the motion?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that if the United

PLEA

States Attorney determines that you have not provided substantial assistance, or that you violated any provision of the agreement, the United States Attorney is not obligated to file a motion under Section 5K1.1?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that you will not be entitled to withdraw your guilty plea even if the United States Attorney does not file a motion?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you understand that the agreement provides that if you commit any further crimes or if it is determined that you gave false, incomplete or misleading testimony or information, or that you otherwise violated any provision of the agreement, you will be subject to prosecution for any federal violations of which the United States Attorney has knowledge, including perjury and obstruction of justice?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you also understand that your agreement provides that if you commit any further crimes, or if it is determined that you gave false, incomplete or misleading testimony or information, or otherwise violated any provision of the agreement, all statements made by you to the United States Attorney or other designated law enforcement agents and any testimony you have given before a grand jury or other tribunal may be admissible in evidence in any criminal PLEA 1 proceedings against you? 2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 3 THE COURT: Do you understand that your agreement also 4 provides that you may not assert a claim that such statements 5 should be suppressed from evidence and that you have waived 6 your right to claim that such statements should be suppressed 7 from evidence? THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 8 9 THE COURT: Do you understand that on page 2, your 10 agreement, which is Government Exhibit 1, provides that you are 11 admitting the forfeiture allegation in the Information and that 12 you are agreeing to forfeit to the United States all property, 13 real and personal, that constitutes or is derived from proceeds 14 traceable to the commission of those offenses, including, but 15 not limited to, a sum of money equal to $97.3 billion, representing the amount of proceeds obtained as a result of the 16 17 offenses charged in Counts One and Two of the Information? 18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 19 THE COURT: Do you understand that you are not 20 obligated to admit the forfeiture obligation? 21 THE DEFENDANT: 22 THE COURT: Do you understand that on page 5 -- just 23 one moment.

1 Ms. Baroni, is there a factual basis or other reason for my specifically querying the immigration-related agreement 2 3 that is on page 5? 4 MS. BARONI: No, your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, do you understand 6 that any amount that you do forfeit will not be credited toward 7 any fines, restitution, costs of imprisonment, or any other additional penalty that the Court may impose on you? 8 9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 10 THE COURT: Do you still wish to plead quilty pursuant 11 to this plea agreement? 12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 13 THE COURT: Messrs. Treanor and Rody, does either of 14 you know of any valid reason why Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz would 15 prevail at trial? 16 MR. TREANOR: No, your Honor. 17 MR. RODY: No, your Honor. 18 THE COURT: Does either of you know of any reason why 19 she should not be permitted to plead guilty? 20 MR. TREANOR: No, your Honor. 21 MR. RODY: No, your Honor. 22 THE COURT: Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, would you please 23 stand now and tell me what you did that makes you quilty of the 24 crimes to which you are pleading guilty. 25 Your counsel may stand with you, if that will make you

1 more comfortable.

THE DEFENDANT: I have a statement here.

I am here to plead guilty to the counts in the Information filed against me and to accept responsibility for what I have done.

From approximately 1999 through December 2008, while working for Bernard Madoff, I made accounting entries in the books and records of his business that I knew were false and inaccurate, and I filed document with regulatory authorities and others that I knew repeated these falsehoods and inaccuracies. I now know that these acts helped Bernard Madoff and others perpetuate a fraud that harmed thousands of people, and I am terribly sorry that I contributed to the harm done to so many.

I would like to explain my role further.

I began working at Bernard L. Madoff Investment

Securities, LLC, which I will refer to as "BLMIS," in 1978 as a part-time employee while I was still in college. For the next 30 years, I continued to work at BLMIS primarily performing functions in the operations department associated with BLMIS's Proprietary Trading and Market Making businesses.

During the entire time I worked at BLMIS, I reported to Daniel Bonventre, who was the director of operations at the firm.

In late 1998, I was promoted to comptroller of BLMIS.

PLEA

In that capacity, I assisted Bonventre in maintaining the books and records of BLMIS, which included the General Ledger and stock records. I also regularly prepared the Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Reports, also know as "FOCUS Reports," that were filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, I occasionally assisted Annette Bongiorno, Joann Crupi and others in maintaining books and records relating to Investment Advisory accounts and signing redemption checks issued to investors.

During the period when I was comptroller of BLMIS, I agreed with and worked together with other BLMIS employees to violate the laws of the United States, and I took a number of actions over the years at BLMIS's offices in Manhattan that constituted violations of U.S. laws. I did so knowingly and willfully, and knew that what I was doing was wrong and unlawful.

My conduct included a number of acts that I would like to describe.

From about 1999 through December 2008, I worked with others to make false entries in the books and records of BLMIS and to cause the filing of false documents with the SEC. As a registered broker-dealer and as an investment advisor, BLMIS was required to make and keep accurate books and records under the SEC's rules. At the direction of Madoff, Bonventre and others, I caused inaccurate ledgers and other books and records to be created and kept by BLMIS, including inaccurate general ledgers and stock records. I then transferred the same inaccurate record entries into FOCUS Reports and annual financial statements that I knew would be sent to the SEC.

The false documents were prepared at the BLMIS offices in Manhattan, and some of these documents were submitted through the U.S. Mail.

While undertaking these actions, I knew that what I was doing was wrong.

The following are a few examples of the types of false records I created and maintained.

From about 1999 through December 2008, I made false and inaccurate entries in the books and records of BLMIS relating to transfers of funds from BLMIS's Investment Advisory business. At various times, I believed these transfers to be the interest or commissions from securities trading in the personal accounts of Bernard Madoff or the accounts of customers of the Investment Advisory business. Nevertheless, at the direction of Madoff, Bonventre and others, I booked these transfers improperly to the accounts of BLMIS's Proprietary Trading and Market Making businesses, and recorded these false entries in BLMIS's Trading Ledgers, General Ledgers, and other supporting books and records of BLMIS's Proprietary Trading and Market Making businesses.

In addition, at the direction of Bonventre and others,

PLEA

I booked the transfers of funds at times into specific securities or trading positions and accounts that were part of the firm's Proprietary Trading and Market Making businesses. I knew that the transfers bore no relation to these securities or positions, and that the funds did not result from trading in these securities through the firm's Proprietary Trading and Market Making businesses and, therefore, that my entries were false. I understood that my entries falsely inflated the revenue, increased the profits, and hid the losses of the Proprietary Trading and Market Making businesses and at the same time did not accurately report the financial condition of BLMIS as a whole.

In addition, in 2005, the SEC conducted an audit of BLMIS's businesses. At Madoff's direction and in response to this audit, I, together with others, created false books and records to be shown to the auditors.

For example, the SEC requested a list and description of all BLMIS trading accounts as well as a report reflecting the monthly profit and loss for each of the trading accounts for a three-month period in 2005. In response, I, together with Bonventre, O'Hara and others, created several false trading account reports that were given to the SEC. In those reports, among other things, we intentionally omitted an account affiliated with the Investment Advisory business.

I knew that my actions in creating these false reports and omitting this account were wrong and would have the effect of misleading the SEC and concealing the account from the SEC.

Separately, I assisted Madoff and other BLMIS employees in defrauding the United States by preventing the Internal Revenue Service from collecting the proper amount of income taxes from Madoff. I did this in 2007, when the IRS audited Madoff's 2004 and 2005 federal tax returns, as well as on other occasions.

In 2007, at the direction of Madoff and his accountant, David Friehling, I, together with Bonventre, O'Hara and others, created a false backdated General Ledger and Trading Ledger and created false reports derived from the Trading Ledger in order to support Madoff's false tax returns. In addition, I, together with Bonventre and others, fabricated backdated positions in certain stocks in a backdated trading ledger. I knew that the backdated stock positions were not real and that the false General Ledger and Trading Ledger were being created in order to deceive IRS tax auditors in connection with Madoff's tax returns.

The altered backdated documents that I helped to create were shown to an IRS auditor.

I believe that the actions I have described above make me guilty of the crimes charged in Counts One, Two, Three and Four of the Information, and I plead guilty to those charges because I am responsible for committing those crimes.

PLEA

Although I now know that the crimes I committed helped to cover up and perpetuate Bernard Madoff's fraudulent Ponzi scheme, at the time I committed these crimes I did not know that Madoff and others were stealing investors' money instead of actually investing the money through securities trading. Nonetheless, the consequences of my actions are clear to me now, and for that I am, again, terribly sorry. I would like to apologize to the victims of the fraud, and I would like the Court and the public to know that I am cooperating fully with the government in this matter. Thank you, your Honor. THE COURT: Thank you. Now, I notice that you were reading from notes as you made that factual recitation. Do those notes reflect accurately and truthfully your own actions and knowledge as of the time of the relevant events? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, they do. THE COURT: And to confirm, you knew at the time that you made these false records and false submissions that you have described that the information in them was false? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. THE COURT: And you nonetheless made them and submitted them willfully? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Ms. Baroni, does the government wish

1cjdpitp PLEA anything further as a factual matter to be addressed in the 1 2 plea allocution? 3 MS. BARONI: No, your Honor. 4 THE COURT: Thank you. 5 Ms. Baroni, would you please summarize the 6 government's evidence against Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz. 7 MS. BARONI: Yes, your Honor. If this case had proceeded to trial, the government 8 9 would have proven, through witness testimony, documents and 10 other evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt all the facts set 11 forth in the Superseding Information. 12 Specifically, the government would have proven that 13 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz was employed at BLMIS from 1978 until at 14 least December 2008; that beginning in 1998 she became a 15 comptroller. The evidence would show that Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, 16 17 along with Daniel Bonventre, Annette Bongiorno, Joann Crupi, 18 Jerome O'Hara, George Perez, Eric Lipkin, David Kugel and Frank DiPascali, and other co-conspirators, engaged in a scheme to 19 20 create many false and misleading entries in the books and 21 records of BLMIS that lasted for decades. 22

Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, the evidence would show, worked under the supervision of Mr. Bonventre, and that she engaged in an accounting fraud that covered up Mr. Madoff's Ponzi scheme.

25

The evidence would prove that they took proceeds --

PLEA

she, Mr. Bonventre and others took proceeds from the Ponzi scheme, which was a fraud run through the Investment Advisory business, and made it appear that the money belonged in other parts of Madoff's businesses. This allowed Madoff to avoid scrutiny by hiding the fact that the money came from the fraudulent IA business, and it also allowed Madoff to prop up BLMIS's market making and prop trading businesses that were losing money and that served as a front for the Ponzi scheme.

The government would also prove, if this case had gone to trial, that Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, Mr. Bonventre and others made similar false and misleading statements in reports that were required to be filed with the SEC.

In addition, the government would prove that

Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, along with Daniel Bonventre, Jerome

O'Hara, George Perez, Joann Crupi, Eric Lipkin, Frank DiPascali

and other co-conspirators, created false and fraudulent documents for the purpose of deceiving the Securities and Exchange Commission. For example, the government would prove that in connection with an audit of BLMIS conducted by the SEC in 2005, Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, Bonventre, O'Hara and others created numerous false and altered documents that were given to the SEC relating to BLMIS's trading accounts, bank accounts, and relating to its profitability and loss.

Further, and separately, the government would also prove that Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, Daniel Bonventre, Jerome O'Hara and Madoff's accountant David Friehling, along with other co-conspirators, created false and fraudulent documents in connection with tax audits of Bernard L. Madoff. For example, in 2004, when New York State Department of Taxation and Finance conducted an audit of Madoff, Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, Bonventre, O'Hara, Friehling and others covered up the fact that Mr. Madoff had underreported BLMIS's profits by tens of millions of dollars in each of those years and in that cover-up Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, Bonventre, O'Hara and others created fake general ledgers and stock records and other documents to deceive the tax auditors. The government would further prove that Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz and her co-conspirators did the same in connection with a 2007 audit conducted by the Internal Revenue Service. THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, would you please stand again. How do you now plead to the charge against you in Count One of the Fifth Superseding Information, not guilty or quilty? THE DEFENDANT: Guilty. THE COURT: How do you now plead to the charge against you in Count Two of the Fifth Superseding Information, not quilty or quilty?

Guilty.

THE DEFENDANT:

THE COURT: 1 How do you now plead to the charge against you in Count Three of the Fifth Superseding Information, not 2 3 quilty or quilty? 4 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty. 5 THE COURT: And how do you now plead to the charge 6 against you in Count Four of the Fifth Superseding Information, 7 not quilty or quilty? THE DEFENDANT: Guilty. 8 9 THE COURT: Are you pleading quilty to each of these 10 charges because you are in fact quilty of the illegal conduct 11 charged? 12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 13 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty voluntarily and of 14 your own free will? 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. THE COURT: Mr. Treanor, would you please show 16 17 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz Court Exhibit 1, the advice of rights form. Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, have you signed this form? 18 19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 20 THE COURT: Did you read it before you signed it? 21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 22 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with your attorney 23 before you signed it? 24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 25 THE COURT: Did you fully understand it before you

Pg 40 of 49 1cjdpitp PLEA 1 signed it? 2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 3 THE COURT: Mr. Treanor, did you also review and sign 4 Court Exhibit 1? 5 MR. TREANOR: Yes, I did, your Honor. THE COURT: Mr. Treanor, are there any other questions 6 7 that you believe I should ask Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz in connection with this plea? 8 9 MR. TREANOR: No, your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Ms. Baroni, are there any other questions 11 that you believe I should ask Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz in connection 12 with this plea? 13 MS. BARONI: No, your Honor. 14 THE COURT: Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, you have acknowledged 15 that you are guilty as charged in the Information. I find that you know your rights and that you are waiving them voluntarily. 16 17 Because your plea is entered knowingly and voluntarily and is supported by an independent basis in fact containing 18 each of the essential elements of each of the offenses, I 19 accept your quilty plea, and I adjudge you quilty of the offenses charged in Counts One, Two, Three and Four of the Fifth Superseding Information.

Mr. Treanor, do you wish to be present for any interview of Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz in connection with the preparation of the presentence report?

PLEA

1 MR. TREANOR: Yes, your Honor. THE COURT: I will make that direction. 2 3 Counsel, what is the desire of the parties with 4 respect to setting a sentencing date? MS. BARONI: Your Honor, the government would ask that 5 6 your Honor set a sentencing control date for approximately six 7 months into the future and that we would not ask that a presentence report be prepared at this time. 8 9 THE COURT: And you will inform the Court whether that 10 date would need to be extended further or, alternatively, when 11 it is an appropriate time to have the presentence report 12 prepared? 13 MS. BARONI: We will. 14 THE COURT: Thank you. 15 Ms. Ng, may I have a control date six months out? Friday, June 22, 2012, at 11 a.m. 16 THE CLERK: 17 THE COURT: The sentencing control date is set for 18 June 22, 2012, at 11 in the morning. Counsel, when it is time for preparation for 19 20 sentencing, please make sure that you make and file your 21 submissions in accordance with the sentencing submission policy 22 that I have posted on the court's website. 23 Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, at some point in the future the 24 Probation Office will be preparing a presentence report to 25 assist me in sentencing you. You will be interviewed by the

PLEA

Probation Office. It is important that the information that you give to the probation officer be truthful and accurate. The report is important in my decision as to what your sentence will be. You and your attorneys have a right and will have an opportunity to examine the report, to challenge or comment on it, and to speak on your behalf before sentencing.

Failing to be truthful with the Probation Office and the Court may have an adverse effect on your sentence and may subject you to prosecution.

Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Is there an application with respect to bail pending sentencing?

MS. BARONI: Yes, your Honor. The parties have a proposal for your Honor's consideration with respect to a bail package.

It would be a $2.5 million personal recognizance bond to be secured by eight financially-responsible people and to be also secured by at least $800,000 in cash or property. None of the cash or property could come from proceeds of the fraud or from any forfeitable funds.

Further, the proposal would subject the defendant to strict pretrial supervision. Her travel would be restricted to the Southern and Eastern District of New York. She would surrender all travel documents and would not make any new travel applications.

Further, Judge, the government has interviewed eight of the defendant's proposed suriters already, and we are satisfied with respect to their qualifications. We think that they are financially responsible. They are very close family members and friends of the defendant, and we believe that they would have moral suasion over her.

Further, your Honor, the defendant has been working with the U.S. Attorney's Office and the FBI as well as the IRS for quite a long time now. She has met every appointment. She has been completely reliable, and the government believes that she has an overwhelming incentive to continue to cooperate and will not flee.

Further, as part of the cooperation process, she has filled out financial affidavits and submitted them to our office detailing all of her assets, the amounts and the location of those assets. She has also entered into a voluntary restraint agreement with the government relating to her assets.

And in light, your Honor, of her cooperation, which, as I said, has been ongoing for a long time, her full disclosure of her conduct while she was an employee at BLMIS, as well as full disclosure of her financial situation and all of her assets, the government believes that she will be

PLEA compliant with the proposed bail package and with any rules set 1 2 forth by Pretrial Services. 3 THE COURT: Does the government believe, on the basis 4 of its factual investigation, that the evidence is clear and 5 convincing that Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz will not pose a risk of 6 flight or danger to the community? 7 MS. BARONI: Yes, your Honor. 8 THE COURT: And has the government investigated the 9 proposed sources of the security? 10 MS. BARONI: Yes, we have. 11 THE COURT: And is the government satisfied that the 12 sources are indeed unrelated to the particular forfeitable 13 funds? 14 MS. BARONI: Yes, your Honor. They are not related to 15 BLMIS in any way. THE COURT: And what would be the government's 16 17 proposal as to the deadline for satisfaction of these conditions? 18 19 MS. BARONI: Given the upcoming holidays, your Honor, 20 we would be amenable to ten days to post the property and for 21 the cosigners to sign the bond. 22 THE COURT: And so today being the 19th, that would be the 29th of December? 23 24 MR. TREANOR: Your Honor, if we could ask for

January 3rd, just to get us past the holidays. It is a difficult time to get people focused on this. The courthouses aren't open all of the days between now an then. And so we have a number of cosigners ready to go, and we expect that that will be a pretty quick process getting the signatures. It is the property that may take a little bit longer. So we would ask for that additional time.

MS. BARONI: We have no objection to that, your Honor.

THE COURT: I will allow until January 3rd for satisfaction of the conditions.

And having reviewed the Pretrial Services' report and considered carefully the government's proffers regarding the proposed terms and its investigations in relation to those proposed terms, I find that they are sufficient and compliant with the relevant legal standards regarding bail pending sentencing, and I will grant release on those conditions, with the requirement that they be fully satisfied by why don't I call it 4 in the afternoon on January 3rd.

And I am going to now prepare a bail disposition sheet and I will show it to everyone to -- I'll show it to counsel to confirm that I have all of the conditions written properly.

(Pause)

Ms. Ng, would you hand a copy to each table and one to the court reporter, please.

The draft that I have handed out summarizes the bail conditions as follows: $2.5 million PRB with 8 FRPs and PLEA $800,000 cash or property security (such security must be 1 unrelated to fraud proceeds and unrelated to forfeitable 2 3 funds); strict pretrial supervision; travel restricted to 4 S.D.N.Y./E.D.N.Y.; surrender travel documents and no new 5 applications. All conditions must be satisfied by 4 p.m. on 6 January 3, 2012. 7 Does that accurately cover the agreed conditions? 8 MS. BARONI: Yes, it does, your Honor. 9 If your Honor could add that she could be released 10 today on a certain subset of cosigner signatures, either on her 11 own signature or on a couple of other signatures, depending on 12 how many people are here to sign? 13 THE COURT: How many do we have to sign? 14 MR. TREANOR: We have two here. I believe we have a 15 third that will be here. We may have as many as five today. 16 Of course, we have Ms. Pitz also. 17 THE COURT: I will permit release today on the 18 signature of Ms. Pitz and three financially-responsible 19 persons. 20 Thank you, your Honor. MR. TREANOR: 21 THE COURT: I will add that. 22 So I've added a sentence at the end that says: 23 "Defendant may be released today on own signature and those of 24 three FRPs."

So I will save and print those.

1cjdpitp PLEA 1 How many copies to we need, Ms. Ng? THE CLERK: 2 Five. 3 (Pause) 4 THE COURT: Ms. Cotellessa-Pitz, did you hear the bail 5 conditions as I have outlined them? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 6 7 THE COURT: Do you understand them? 8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 9 THE COURT: Do you understand that you are legally 10 obligated to comply with these conditions, and that the 11 consequences of noncompliance can be severe? 12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do. 13 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you fail to 14 comply with the conditions, you are subject to remand and 15 potentially subject to further penalty? 16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 17 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you do not 18 return to my courtroom on the time and date that is ultimately 19 set for sentencing, that you will be guilty of a crime 20 separate, apart from -- separate and apart from the crimes to 21 which you have just pled guilty? 2.2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 23 THE COURT: And do you understand that under such 24 circumstances, you will be subject to penalties separate, apart 25 from, and over and above any that may be imposed in connection

1cjdpitp PLEA with the crimes to which you have pled quilty? 1 2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor. 3 THE COURT: Then I will fully expect you to comply 4 with these conditions and to appear as scheduled for 5 sentencing. 6 I will now sign the bail disposition sheet. 7 (Pause) Is there a consent forfeiture order at this time, or 8 9 is that something the parties contemplate to prepare later? 10 MS. BARONI: We will prepare it later, your Honor, 11 prior to sentencing. 12 THE COURT: All right. I will enter my usual order 13 regarding the preparation of a preliminary order of forfeiture. 14 Is there anything else that we need to take up 15 together this afternoon? 16 MS. BARONI: Not from the government. Thank you, your 17 Honor. 18 MR. TREANOR: No, your Honor. 19 THE COURT: Thank you. 20 Ms. Baroni, Mr. Moore, you will shepherd the process through the Magistrate Clerk's office in relation to the signing of the necessary documents?

MS. BARONI: Yes, Judge.

THE COURT: Thank you.
